

I support satellite radio's traffic and weather channels. It is extremely helpful to me when traveling and provides me with a broad spectrum of safety with necessary information about weather and road conditions. Satellite radio is a boon to those of us on the road and it is incomprehensible that the Natl Assoc. of Broadcasters should want to interfere with my freedom to hear the traffic and weather information that satellite radio provides. - Jolene Smith / Memphis, TN